Dear Mr. Newman:

In one of our estates we have a collection of coins that are believed to be quite valuable. We are trying to explore the possibility of reaching individual purchasers of such a collection as opposed to working with coin dealers only.

Mrs. Adolph B. Hill, Jr. has suggested that we ask you the names of reputable firms with whom we could discuss the possibilities involved in trying to make this type of disposable of the property. We would appreciate any assistance you could give us.

Very truly yours,

Elden R. Sternberg

Re Estate of Burton D. Buckley

Dear Mr. Sternberg:

Thank you for the list of the numismatic collection
in your custody.

I am planning to go on vacation until July 10 and will talk to you about this group of pieces after I return.

The collection seems like a lovely one.

Sincerely yours,

EPN/ath

Dear Mr. Sternberg:

Thank you for the list of the numismatic collection
in your custody.

I am planning to go on vacation until July 10 and
will talk to you about this group of pieces after I return.

The collection seems like a lovely one.

Sincerely yours,

EPN/atb

Dear Jim:

I believe I can find a place for the item printed in Stockholm which you wrote me about. Would you suggest some price.

How are you doing on the Heath Detector which you have on approval from me?

There is an enormous collection of half dollars from 1794 to date, including Commemoratives, here in St. Louis. It is going to be offered for sale. There are a lot of proofs and a lot of branch Mints and every date is covered. It is loaded with half dollar patterns. I think they will probably have to auction it but if you have any ideas, it is a fantastic collection.

Sincerely yours,

EPN/atb
